Dear President,

On behalf of the Union Cycliste Internationale, please accept my warmest congratulations on your election as President of the Kyrgyzstan Cycling Federation. As a former National Federation President, I understand the importance of your role and the dedication it requires. I am confident in your ability to ensure the realisation of the National Federation's objectives.

I wish you and your Committee every success during your term. Your commitment to aligning programs with the National Federation's goals will undoubtedly contribute to the development of all aspects of cycling in your country. The UCI's 2030 Agenda serves as our action plan for a more inclusive and sustainable sport, supporting the global development of cycling.

I also want to emphasise that the UCI, under my leadership, is dedicated to promoting cycling in your country, on your continent, and worldwide. I look forward to collaborating with you in the coming months and years.

May I also take this opportunity to say that you would be very welcome to come and visit my colleagues and I here at the UCI's headquarters in Aigle, Switzerland. To arrange your visit, please feel free to contact our International Relations Department at internationalrelations@uci.ch, which will be happy to assist you with scheduling, logistics, and any specific inquiries you may have about your visit.

Additionally, we are committed to providing comprehensive support to your National Federation and will be readily available to assist with any issues, concerns, or challenges that may arise. We stand ready to collaborate with you, with the aim of strengthening our partnership and achieving shared success.

With my very best regards,

David Lappartient
